LAW EXCHANGE PROGRAMME

SCHOOL OF LAW

Trinity College School of Law is Ireland's oldest and most internationally renowned law school, established in 1740. With a distinguished team of professors and lecturers, many of whom are the leading experts in their fields of study, the School of Law attracts students of the highest calibre. There are over 700 students registered at undergraduate level and 180 students at postgraduate level. The School of Law is ideally situated on the historic campus of Trinity College Dublin in the heart of Dublin city, close to the courts and government buildings. Exchange students can experience the vibrant cultural life of the capital city while studying in one of Ireland's most famous tourist attractions.

We welcome over 100 exchange/visiting students per year from our 30 partner universities across Europe, North America, Australia and Asia. This ensures an international dimension to the School of Law with a diverse student body.

APPLICATION DEADLINES FOR LAW EXCHANGE PROGRAMME

First semester (entry in September 2021):

Exchange Coordinator must send details of their nominated students to law.exchange@tcd.ie by 20th March 2021:

Once nominations are received, students will receive information about Trinity's exchange application process. Students must return application forms to law.exchange@tcd.ie by 15th April 2021.

Second semester (entry in January 2022):

We encourage Exchange Coordinator to send details of their nominated students to law.exchange@tcd.ie by 20th March 2021. However later deadline of 30th May 2021 is permissible for second semester applicants.

Once nominations are received, students will receive information about Trinity's exchange application process. Students must return application forms to law.exchange@tcd.ie by 30th June 2021 (however students are encouraged to apply as soon as possible so they can apply for accommodation for January 2022).

SEMESTER DATES IN THE SCHOOL OF LAW 2021/22

The academic year structure is currently being finalized. The intention is to start late August, for Orientation week, and run until mid-December for the first semester. The second semester will commence mid-January until early May 2022. Please note the academic calendar may have to change in light of COVID 19 restrictions.

The updated calendar for 2021/22 will be provided through this link: <https://www.tcd.ie/calendar/academic-year-structure/>

LL.M MODULE SELECTION PROCESS

JD exchange students are permitted to take modules on the LL.M. Programme in Trinity College Dublin. The standard workload for LL.M. students is three 10 ECTS modules per semester. JD exchange students should consult their home university Exchange Coordinator to ensure they study sufficient number of modules to meet the credit requirements of their home university which may be more than the standard three module workload of LL.M. students. The list of modules for 2021/22 is not available yet and subject to change but students can refer to the 2020/21 offering for information purposes:

<https://www.tcd.ie/law/programmes/postgraduate/taught/modules.php>

Please note that some modules can be heavily prescribed, and priority is given to students on the specialized LL.M degrees. LL.M modules are offered in one semester only.

A draft LL.M timetable for 2021/22 will be finalised in late summer 2021 and circulated to successful exchange student applicants. In order to allow the School to maximise the possibility of students taking their first preference options, students are asked to submit an early indication of their module options. A final timetable will be made available prior to lectures commencing and students will be required to make a final decision on their module choices early in the first semester with the Law School and also with Academic Registry (Further instructions will follow in August)

J.D. students are expected to complete the standard form of assessment in their LL.M. modules. Trinity Law School cannot accommodate special assessment requests that go beyond the academic curriculum in the Law School.

POSTGRADUATE ORIENTATION

The Law School advises students to arrive well in advance of lectures commence to secure accommodation and familiarise themselves with the TCD Campus and Dublin City.

LL.M students are strongly encouraged to attend the Postgraduate student orientation meetings organised by the University and Graduate Students' Union. Precise programme and dates have not been published as yet. Further information will also be announced at <https://www.tcdgsu.ie/>. The following week of orientation is usually organised for undergraduate and exchange students. A number of formal and informal events are scheduled, including registration, orientation meetings, a welcome reception, library tours etc. Students also have the opportunity to sign up to the 100 different student societies and 50 sports clubs which set up camp in Front Square. Further information will also be announced at www.tcd.ie/orientation.

TUITION FEE PAYMENT AND REGISTRATION AT TRINITY COLLEGE DUBLIN

Exchange students are not liable for tuition fees at Trinity College Dublin.

The Academic Registry will invite students to register online from August onwards. Students must complete an online registration process and will be required to collect their student ID card and general College orientation literature in September.

Information relating to the registration process is available at <http://www.tcd.ie/academicregistry/registration/>

The Law School does not administer fee payments or registration process. All queries relating to issues with fee payments and registration should be directed to the Academic Registry - <http://www.tcd.ie/academicregistry/>

POSTGRADUATE STUDENT SUPPORT

POSTGRADUATE ADVISORY SERVICE

The Postgraduate Advisory Service is a unique and confidential service available to all registered postgraduate students in Trinity College. It offers a comprehensive range of academic, pastoral and professional supports dedicated to enhancing your student experience.

PRE-ARRIVAL INFORMATION

To ensure a smooth transition to life in Dublin and at Trinity College, please review the websites listed below. These useful guides will help you prepare to come to Trinity College/Dublin/Ireland and provide guidance on Visas, Health Insurance, Accommodation, Academic Life and Support etc.

<https://www.tcd.ie/study/international/before-arrival/>
www.tcd.ie/orientation

VISA

Students coming from Canada and the USA to study full-time in an accredited Trinity program do not require a visa to enter Ireland. However they must register with the GNIB upon arrival and registration in Trinity College Dublin. Further information can be found at:

<https://www.tcd.ie/study/international/before-arrival/>
<http://www.inis.gov.ie/en/INIS/Pages/Irish%20Visa%20Information>

MEET & GREET SERVICE

The free 'Meet & Greet' service offers international students a stress-free transition to Ireland. If they avail of the service, students will be greeted by a Trinity student in the arrivals area of Dublin airport who will accompany them into Dublin City Centre. Exchange students will be brought into Trinity's Students' Union office where information on finding accommodation, an Irish SIM card and lots of useful information about living in Dublin are provided <https://www.tcd.ie/study/international/trinity-life/arrival/>

HEALTH INSURANCE

All students are obliged to have health insurance to cover any medical costs incurred during their stay. Further information can be found at:

<https://www.tcd.ie/study/international/trinity-life/arrival/>

DISABILITY SERVICE

The Disability Service is the support service for students with disability or special learning difficulties. Exchange students requiring support from Trinity College due to the impact of their disability or specific learning difficulty are advised to contact the Service as early as possible to explore what supports can be provided.

Website: <http://www.tcd.ie/disability/>

STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

Unfortunately, there is no space to house exchange students in Trinity Hall this year. We have alternative options available in off-campus locations within walking distance of college, the Binary Hub and Kavanagh Court. The cost of accommodation will be approximately €249 per week.

For further information on these properties please see the links below:

Binary Hub (single semester students) <https://www.tcd.ie/accommodation/binary-hub/>

Kavanagh Court (full academic year) <https://www.tcd.ie/accommodation/kavanagh-court/>

To be considered for a place at either of these locations please apply at this link:

<https://www.tcd.ie/accommodation/>.

Please note that these rooms are allocated on a first come, first served basis.

To apply for university accommodation, you must apply on-line. You will not be able to apply on line until you have received your Trinity College Student ID number.

PRIVATE ACCOMMODATION

Many exchange students, like most Irish students living away from home, live in shared houses or small self-catering flats and apartments in the inner suburbs of the city. There is a high demand for accommodation in Dublin and students are advised to arrive in Dublin at least 3-4 weeks before term begins in order to maximise their chances of finding suitable and affordable accommodation.

ACCOMMODATION ADVISORY SERVICE

The Accommodation Advisory Service will operate August to September and again in January to assist exchange students in finding accommodation:

<http://www.tcdsuaccommodation.org/>

The Students' Union has also put together a useful guide explaining the different parts of the city where students usually rent:
