

Elianna Marziani Nuzum

Education

University of Chicago Law School, Chicago, IL, September 2002 – June 2005

- J.D.; Frank Greenberg Scholar

Washington and Lee University, Lexington, VA, September 1998 – June 2002

- B.A., summa cum laude; politics and journalism double-major, economics concentration
- Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa

Experience

United States Attorney's Office, Boston, MA, August 2016 – Present

- Assistant United States Attorney, Major Crimes Unit, Affirmative Civil Enforcement (2016-2018)
 - Prosecute crimes including kidnapping resulting in death, gun and drug trafficking, robbery, sexual exploitation of children, wire fraud, and identity theft, among others, from pretrial investigation through charging and trial or guilty plea and sentencing
 - Recipient of Director's Award from Executive Office of U.S. Attorneys
- District Court Restorative Justice Program Co-Coordinator
 - Co-facilitate restorative justice workshop circles that include criminal defendants, victims of crime, community members, and members of the justice system; facilitate trauma reading and discussion groups; facilitate individual restorative conferences

Suffolk County District Attorney's Office, Boston, MA, May 2013 – July 2016

- Assistant District Attorney, Boston Municipal Court – Central Division:
 - Prosecuted a large variety of misdemeanors and felonies from arraignment and discovery through evidentiary hearings, pleas, and/or trials
- Assistant District Attorney, Appeals Division:
 - Briefed and argued a wide range of appeals to the Massachusetts Appeals Court and Supreme Judicial Court, ranging from District Court convictions to first degree murder convictions; served on the office's Conviction Integrity Program Committee

Goodwin Procter LLP, Boston, MA, Summer 2004, September 2005 – May 2013

- Associate, Litigation Department, White Collar Crime and Government Investigations group
- Represented corporations and individuals in DOJ, SEC, and state Attorney General investigations involving allegations of health care fraud, securities fraud, violations of the False Claims Act, and independent contractor misclassification; also represented clients in parallel private civil actions
- Represented corporations in complex commercial litigation involving alleged trade secret theft, false advertising, violation of consumer protection laws, and employment-related disputes
- Conducted significant pro bono work in areas of criminal and immigration law, including obtaining asylum for woman facing removal proceedings in U.S. Immigration Court

Affiliations and Bar Admissions

- Member of the Boston Bar Association
- Admitted to practice in Massachusetts, the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, the United States Courts of Appeals for the First Circuit and the Federal Circuit

Service

Discovering Justice, Boston, MA, August 2016 – Present

- Volunteer leader and coach for middle school students in mock trial program
- Meet with students weekly for 10 weeks to teach them the fundamentals of trial practice, introduce a fact pattern, and help them prepare for a mock trial before a judge in federal court

Boston Bar Association, Public Interest Leadership Program, Boston, MA, May 2014 – June 2015

- Public interest fellow in leadership program designed to promote civic engagement and service
- Designed and implemented a series of civil legal education workshops aimed at assisting young adult probationers in the state court system in reentering society and avoiding recidivism