

Tiffany Thompson

History Department, Stokes Hall South, Boston College
tiffany.thompson@bc.edu

Education

Boston College, Boston, MA

History, Morrissey College of Arts and Sciences

Graduate Degree: Doctor of Philosophy, in progress

Research Topics: Modern Britain and Ireland; Civil Rights and the Troubles in Northern Ireland; Women and Gender; Migrations and Diasporas.

Columbia University, New York, NY

European History, Politics, and Society, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences

Graduate Degree: Master of Arts, October 2018

Thesis: “International Socialist Playgirl of the Year”: Bernadette Devlin Between Student Rebellion and Parliamentary Politics in Northern Ireland, 1968-1974

University of California, Irvine, CA

History, School of Humanities

Undergraduate Degree: Bachelor of Arts, June 2016

Thesis: War Stories: German Youth Resistance on the Nazi Homefront

Honors and Awards

- Anne Owen Weekes Prize, American Conference for Irish Studies, 2022
- IRISH Seminar Fellowship, University of Notre Dame, 2022
- Irish Studies Summer Research Scholarship, Boston College, 2022
- History Summer Research Award, Boston College, 2022
- Dean’s Summer Session Teaching Fellowship, Boston College, 2022
- Irish Studies Fellowship Award, Boston College, 2020-2021
- Thesis Fieldwork Grant from the European Institute, Columbia University, 2018
- Graduate School of Arts and Sciences Research Award, Columbia University 2018
- Fulbright U.S. Student Programs Study/Research Award, Semifinalist, 2017
- Phi Alpha Theta National History Honors Society, UC Irvine 2016
- Dean’s Honors List, UC Irvine, 2012-2016

Publications

- “The Honorable Lady Does Have Such a Right”: Bernadette Devlin as a Case Study for Gender Analysis,” Writing the Troubles, Forthcoming January 2023, <https://writingthetroublesweb.wordpress.com/>
- “How Irish Women Remembered the Revolution: Gendered Constructions of Memory in Personal Narratives,” Annotations & Abstracts: The Boston College Historical Commons, April 2022, <https://sites.bc.edu/historicalcommons/2022/04/01/how-irish-women-remember-the-revolution-gendered-constructions-of-memory-in-personal-narratives/>

- “Women’s Troubles: Locating Northern Irish Women in Special Collections and Archives,” John J. Burns Library’s Blog, February 2022, <https://johnjburnslibrary.wordpress.com/2022/02/28/womens-troubles-locating-northern-irish-women-in-special-collections-and-archives/>

Conferences and Presentations

- “A Proletarian Protest” in Parliament: Bernadette Devlin and the Memory of Bloody Sunday, American Conference for Irish Studies, Virtual Conference, 2022
- “A Proletarian Protest” in Parliament: Bernadette Devlin and the Aftermath of Bloody Sunday, History Graduate Student Association Graduate Conference, University of Maryland, Virtual Conference, 2022
- “‘International Socialist Playgirl of the Year’: Bernadette Devlin Between Student Rebellion and Parliamentary Politics in Northern Ireland, 1968-1974,” Comhfhios, Boston College, March 2021
- “War Stories: German Youth Resistance and the Nazi Homefront,” UC Irvine Undergraduate History Conference, May 2016
- “Gendered Nations: The French Revolution and Women’s Political Participation,” UC Irvine Undergraduate History Conference, May 2015

Guest Lectures and Invited Talks

- “A Proletarian Protest” in Parliament: Bernadette Devlin and the Aftermath of Bloody Sunday, Invited Talk, Bloody Sunday: A Day in History and Memory, Boston College, 2022
- The Global ’68: The Civil Rights & Student Movements in Northern Ireland, Guest Lecture, Globalization II, Boston College, 2022

Teaching Experience

- Teaching Assistant, 2021-Present
 - Europe and the World I
 - Europe and the World II
 - Globalization II
 - Foreign Policy I
 - Foreign Policy II
- Instructor of Record, 2022-Present
 - Modern History I
 - Modern History II

Projects and Organized Conferences

- Comhfhios Boston College: An Irish Studies Conference, Planning Committee Member, 2020-Present
 - Conflict and Resolution: Looking Back and Looking Forward, 2021
 - Other Irelands, 2022
 - Queering Hibernia: Women, Gender, and Sexuality in Ireland and Her Diasporas, 2023
- Graduate Student Voices: The Boston College Graduate History Conference, Planning Committee Member, 2021-Present

- Graduate Student Voices, 2022
 - Graduate Student Voices, 2023
- Bloody Sunday: 50th Anniversary Symposium, Organizer and Book Launch Presenter, Boston College 2022

Campus Involvement

- Annotations & Abstracts: The Boston College Historical Commons, Creator, Lead Editor, and Contributing Writer, Boston College, 2022-Present
- Graduate History Alliance, Boston College, 2021-Present
 - President, 2022-Present
 - Treasurer, 2021-2022
- Graduate Arts and Sciences Association, Boston College, 2021-Present
 - President, 2022-Present
 - Executive Board Member, 2021-2022
- Graduate Student Member, Search Committee for Irish Studies Sullivan Chair, Boston College, 2021
- UCI Education Abroad Program Exchange Partner Program Mentor, UC Irvine, 2016
- UCI History Club, UC Irvine, 2014-2016

Professional Experience

- IRISH Seminar, Associate, Notre Dame Global Gateway, Dublin, IE, June 2022
- Summer Session Teaching Seminars, Boston College, February-May 2022
- Irish Special Collections Assistant, John J. Burns Library at Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA, September 2021-2022
- Curatorial Intern, John J. Burns Library at Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA, June-August 2021
- Research Assistant to Professor Robert Savage, Boston College, 2020-2021
- Private Tutor, October 2018-October 2020
- Research and Social Media Intern, Richard Nixon Presidential Library and Museum, Yorba Linda, CA, September-December 2016

Professional Affiliations

- American Conference for Irish Studies
- North American Conference on British Studies
- Working Class Studies Association
- American Historical Association

Foreign Language Expertise

- French: Fluent speaking, reading, and writing skills.
- Irish: Proficient speaking, reading, and writing skills.
- German: Proficient reading and translation abilities.