

November 2023 Issue

WGS News

ATTENTION ALL SENIOR WGS MINORS:

To complete the WGS minor, you must take the ADVANCED TOPICS seminar during the Spring semester of your senior year. The course has two numbers: SOCY5593 and COMM4941. You can register under either number. This 3-credit senior seminar is required for all minors. This Spring the course will be taught by Women's and Gender Studies Director Lisa Cuklanz, a professor in the Communication Department.

Spring Semester Course Offerings

Minor Requirements

Course: COMM4841 Advanced Topics

Course: COMM2125 Introduction to Feminisms

WGS Electives

Course: ENGL1718 Reading In/Justice: Literature as Activism from Abolitionism to #BlackLivesMatter

Course: ENGL4023 Twentieth Century Irish Women Writers

Course: ENGL5510 Contemporary American Women Writers

Course: HIST4123 Gender, Sexuality, and Power in the Ottoman and British Empires

Course: PHIL4001 Feminisms and Philosophies of Difference

Course: COMM2181 Gender, Identity, and Sexuality

Course: COMM2180 Masculinity, Sexuality and Difference

Course: COMM4477 Fashion as Communication

Course: SPAN6630 Machos ibericos: (De)constructing Masculinity in Contemporary Spain

For more details

WGS Related Events in the Area

Gender and Climate Change: An Intersectional Approach from Latin

America and the Caribbean

Date:

Tuesday, November 7, 2023, 4:30pm to 7:30pm

Location:

CGIS S010, Tsai Auditorium, DRCLAS - 1730 Cambridge St.

WGS Chair Jocelyn Viterna will give the opening remarks at Gender and Climate Change: An Intersectional Approach from Latin America and the Caribbean at Harvard's David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies (DRCLAS).

This event will be held on Tuesday, November 7, 2023, from 4:30 PM to 7:30 PM, and aims to create a space for an overview of the intersection between climate change and gender—emphasizing the need for a nuanced understanding of its impacts in Latin America & the Caribbean—and to share efforts on how addressing gender disparities can enhance climate resilience, mitigation, and adaptation efforts.

More info about the event

NORTHEASTERN AFRICANA STUDIES PROGRAM PRESENTS

50 YEARS

OF AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES
TO BUILD A BETTER WORLD

WITH FEATURED SPEAKER DR. KEISHA BLAIN

Dr. Keisha N. Blain, professor of Africana Studies and history at Brown University, a recent Guggenheim Fellow and Carnegie Fellow, is one of the most innovative and influential young historians of her generation. She is an award-winning historian of the 20th century United States with broad interests and specializations in African American History, the modern African Diaspora, and Women's and Gender Studies.

Dr. Blain's lecture will be followed by a Q&A and conversation with Northeastern's Dr. Kabria Baumgartner, Dean's Associate Professor of Public History and Africana Studies.

Cabral Center, John D. O'Bryant Institute

Tuesday, November 7, 2023

3:00-5:00 PM

Scan the QR code to register!

✉ africanastudies@northeastern.edu

📷 nu_africanastudies

✂ nu_africana

Register
here

If you have any questions, please contact us at gender@bc.edu or call us at 617-552-4198, or you can visit our FAQ page.

Boston College Women's and Gender Studies Program | 140 Commonwealth Avenue |
Chesnut Hill, MA 02467 US

Unsubscribe | Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Try email marketing for free today!